Advanced course in pain & symptom management

Target audience

Doctors working in palliative care; also of value to specialist nurses and pharmacists. Experience in palliative care is a prerequisite for this course.

This course aims to provide participants with:

- An evidence-based update on challenging pain and symptom management topics
- Information about novel and emerging approaches to symptom control
- Stimulation and time for reflection to develop ideas and thoughts for self-directed learning over the next year
- A means of benchmarking against other colleagues
- The opportunity for networking
- A distillation of information which can be disseminated 'back at the ranch'
- A synopsis of the top 10 journal publications in the past year.

This course is planned in partnership with:

Dr Mary Comisky, Marie Curie Centre, Newcastle
Dr Claud Regnard, St Oswald's Hospice, Newcastle
Dr Andrew Wilcock, Hayward House, Nottingham
